Terms of Business

Placing an order and operating a credit account assumes acceptance of our terms of business as follows:

Accounts. All prices quoted are exclusive of VAT and customers not holding an approved credit account with us are required to settle the full remittance due, on completion of work. Customers are eligible for a credit account if their anticipated yearly expenditure with Snappy Snaps is in excess of £2,000. A credit account will be opened on completion of our accounts application form and subsequent receipt of two satisfactory trade references and bank details. Our terms are strictly fourteen days from statement date. Late payment may be subject to interest charges, which will accrue daily from the invoice date at a base rate + 3% until the account is settled. We reserve the right to close any account not used for three months or where the customer purchases are below our weighted average of £2000 annual turnover threshold. Some credit cards can be accepted for payment of accounts, but subject to an additional charge of 5%. Where goods and finished work have been collected by the customer, title will not pass until such goods are fully paid for. In cases of default we reserve the right to retain possession of other goods and work until payment of all outstanding sums have been made.

Copyright. We undertake work for our customers on the understanding that they have the legal title to any copyright involved and they shall be liable for expenses arising out of the infringement of copyright should the above not be the case.

Colour Matching. Colour matching cannot be guaranteed between different prints from the same negative or digital media if printed at different times. If colour matching and balance are critical then the negative or digital image must be correctly exposed and a sample print must be sent with the order. If not, then our printers will, in their opinion, provide the best colour balance based on the overall colour of the subject.

Printing Composition. Printed composition if not stated will be left to the discretion of the printer and his/her decision will be final. If asked to "choose the best negative or digital equivalent", it is sometimes difficult to do this without producing a rough proof from each image in question. If this situation arises we will advise before proceeding, otherwise the printers choice will be final.

Liability. Your films, negatives, digital media or other photographic materials are accepted for processing, duplicating or printing on the basis that their value and that of any prints or duplicates made from them does not exceed the current retail cost of the material itself. Our liability for loss or damage is accordingly limited to replacement of the material, and no other liability will be accepted for loss or damage, consequential or otherwise however caused.

Consequential Loss. We cannot entertain any claims for consequential loss of any material, however caused.

Colour Stability. Because dyes used in colour photographic materials, like other dyes may change in time, neither prints nor copies will be replaced or otherwise warranted against any change of colour.

Delivery Times. Whilst every effort is made to ensure that any work undertaken is completed within the agreed time, delivery times quoted are only a guide and cannot, under any circumstances, be guaranteed.

Print Sizes. The print sizes quoted are in inches and are normal sizes.

Unclaimed Work. Any work that we cannot deliver or is not collected within three months, will be disposed of together with any associated material and we cannot accept liability for loss thus incurred.

Cancellation of Order. Any order cancelled, for any reason, will be charged in full to the customer.

Force Majeure. Every effort will be made to fulfil all orders placed with the company, but the completion of them is subject to variation or cancellation owing to an Act of God, War, Strikes, Fire or any other cause beyond the control of the company.

Fixed Terms. None of our agents or employees has the authority to make any other arrangements with you.

We reserve the right to amend all prices and services at our discretion.
